DICTATORSHIP

The Power of the Heart to Heal
The Power to Heal the Heart

The Government's Treason

On Its Own People!

'Under Riyadh' (Paraphrased, Wall Street Journal, 8/2011)
A Senior Saudi Cleric has issued a religious ruling making it 'permissible for fathers to marry off their young daughters even if they are in the cradle' "But it isn't permissible for their husbands to have sex with them unless they are capable of being placed beneath and bearing the weight of the men."
That Shariah religious ruling now called a Fatwa decreed by Sheik al-Fawzan acting for prepubescent girls and Islamic men. "Those who are calling for a minimum age for marriage should fear God and not violate his laws or try to legislate things God did not permit" Men can have up to four wives if they can be fed.
The King's suggestion that 'Women should now be allowed to work as supermarket cashiers, only for the job to be ruled off limits to the gender by the Grand Mufti, the country's highest religious leader. Women can't work, drive or be allowed to travel abroad or undergo surgery without the permission of a male relative. The clergy have stood behind the Kingdom's ruling family by issuing fatwas barring political protests while the government appears to back off promoting social changes'
Where does Saudi Arabia stand in the modern family of nations?

On the right side, there is a bright, fiery area with orange and yellow flames or lights. The overall scene is dark and mysterious, with a strong contrast between the blue light on the left and the orange/yellow light on the right.

'Guwahati, Assam'. Guardian p14. 16/7/2012

'Indians have expressed horror at video footage of a teenage girl being sexually assaulted by a laughing mob of more than twelve men in a busy street outside a bar in NE India. No one intervened for up to 45 minutes during the attack which was filmed by an off-duty journalist and a cameraman from News-Live channel. The footage was broadcast on news channels prompting a debate on women's safety in India and asked why the journalists didn't intervene. Police have been criticized over their initial indifference towards the attack which took place just minutes from the nearest Police station! The attack has highlighted the dangers of being a woman in India. A global poll last month voted India the worst G20 country for women, behind even Saudi Arabia. India's national commission for women said that the teenage victim had been treated like an animal and had cigarette burns all over her body.'

This is another example of the grotesque treatment of women. A woman executed by the Taliban for adultery, put on internet! There's long lists of inhumane treatment of women, of so called 'honor killings', to forced marriages of teenage girls in Pakistan, to the Qatif girl who was gang raped but ordered by a court in Saudi Arabia to be given 200 lashes for the crime of 'mingling.'

A Christian girl was framed by a Moslem imam for burning pages of the Koran for which the penalty is death! Even more barbaric examples are the mass raping of Moslem women, estimated to be 20,000, as a militarily condoned 'objective' during the horrendous 1990's fascist war in Bosnia, and the sex slave and torture prisons!

REVOLUTION from IMPERIALISTS

*Why my dearest is this land so poor we are good people, we work hard but.....
Is it true, are we inferior to those around us?
Look at me my dear one.*

*Our land was conquered many years ago ever since I can remember there was always some King or Lord telling us, oppressing us,
the way he thought was the best for himself.*

*Now should we take the blame for their misrule?
(as they will surely try and make us the guilty)
We love our land, it is they who exploited it!*

These are the I M P E R I A L I S T S.

This poverty is not our devotion, hope and faith ~ but since I was a little child there have been those Kings who wished to control all this beautiful land.

They used their power so that the spirit ~ of me, of you, of this wonder was ignorantly repressed and destroyed so they could dominate us and greedily live in their castle!

This poverty is not of me.

*They have corrupted my love so that they could rule,
they have made us feel weak,
ashamed, guilty of our simplicity,
afraid to love ourselves.*

*How could I grow since from a child
they made me fearful, in dire poverty ~
Am I my true self or what they made me so that they could have the Power?*

*Yes, my dearest, our land is beautiful it could grow the most inspiring fruit, flora and fauna ~ giving us vegetables and healthy food, all of nature's gifts.
We have lived too many days under the OLIGARCHS, who imagine their wealth is completely 'Natural'.
The land needs its freedom ~ a REVOLUTION.*

*My dear one, I remember a man who sang ~ that he loved the World, that he knew of lands of amazingly colourful flowers, sacred trees,
birds and butterflies beside clearest waters.
How beautiful it could be in your land with love
he said, Not a land of Intimidation, Occupation!
I remember how much I loved these words
And how much I dreamed of change but I would look at our land and despair.*

*How could I create such a garden?
I was so used to this reality of poverty that I could not imagine much more ~
There was always the King up in his castle.
He psychologically dominated everything,*

*so that I could not think beyond this World
he had allowed for us but oh
how I wished and dreamed!*

The man loved us and by this wished to show us how to overcome the Imperialist and rebirth our natural beauty.

*But we felt so dependent on the King,
we could not open the castle's door.*

We gave the man no choice but to leave.

With tears in his heart

he promised that one day we shall be free ~

My dearest the King is still fortified in his castle and we continue to be his subjects manipulated by our inferior complex, until we can throw off this relationship whereby our hearts have meekly accepted his Lordly Superiority.

We are made the poorest in this Imperial affair.

They have taught us to deny our inner selves.

My dear one ~

*When we love freely, not loving through fear, when we are loved freely, not as a subject of the Great Caesar and his army and pontiffs.
Then we will realise that we do share and that we all do have a part of this Our Beautiful Land.*
