'Personality * Disorders' * (Arrangement from Wikipedia)

These behavioural patterns in personality disorders are typically associated with substantial disturbances in some behavioural tendencies of an individual, usually involving several areas of the personality, & are nearly always associated with considerable personal & social disruption. A person's classified as having Personality disorder if their abnormalities of behaviour impair their social or occupational functioning. Additionally, personality disorders are inflexible & pervasive across many situations, due in large part to the fact that such behaviour may be ego-syntonic i.e. the patterns are consistent with the ego integrity of the individual) & are, therefore, perceived to be appropriate by that individual. This behaviour can result in maladaptive coping skills, which may lead to personal problems that induce extreme anxiety, distress, or depression.

These patterns of behaviour typically are recognized in adolescence and the beginning of adulthood in some unusual instances, childhood. People with BPD feel emotions more easily more deeply & longer than others do. Emotions may repeatedly resurge and persist a long time. Consequently, it may take longer than normal for people with BPD to return to a stable emotional baseline following an intense emotional experience. In Marsha Linehan's view, the sensitivity, intensity, and duration with which people with BPD feel emotions have both positive and negative effects. People with BPD are often exceptionally enthusiastic, idealistic, joyful and loving. However they may feel overwhelmed by negative emotions experiencing intense grief instead of sadness, shame and humiliation instead of mild embarrassment, rage instead of annoyance, and panic instead of nervousness. People with BPD. are especially sensitive to feelings of rejection, criticism, isolation, and perceived failure. Before learning other coping mechanisms, their efforts to manage or escape from their intense negative emotions may lead to self-injury or suicidal behaviour. They are often aware of the intensity of their negative emotional reactions & since they cannot regulate them, they shut them down entirely. This can be harmful to people with BPD. since negative emotions alert people to the presence of a problematic situation and move them to address it. While people with BPD feel joy intensely, they are especially prone to dysphoria, or feelings of mental and emotional distress. Zanarini et al recognized four categories of dysphoria that are typical of this condition: extreme emotions, destructiveness or self-destructiveness, feeling fragmented or lacking identity, and feelings of victimization. Within these categories, a BPD diagnosis is strongly associated with a combination of three specific states: feeling betrayed, "feeling like hurting myself" and feeling out of control. Since there is great variety in the types of dysphoria experienced by people with BPD the amplitude of the distress is a helpful indicator of borderline personality disorder. Adding to intense emotions people with BPD experience emotional lability or changeability. Although the term suggests rapid changes between depression & elation the mood swings in people with this condition actually occur more frequently between anger and anxiety and between depression and anxiety.

Borderline personality disorder (BPD) is a personality disorder. The essential features include a pattern of impulsivity and instability of behaviours, interpersonal relationships, & self-image. Splitting (thinking in extremes) Chaos in relationships, markedly disturbed sense of identity Intense or uncontrollable emotional outbursts, anger, rage & depression. The pattern is present by early adulthood and occurs across a variety of situations & contexts. Symptoms include intense fears of abandonment, extreme anger, and irritability, the reason for which others have difficulty understanding. People with BPD often engage in idealization/devaluation of others altering between high positive regard & great disappointment. Self-harm, suicidal behaviour, substance abuse are common. The most distinguishing symptoms of BPD are marked sensitivity to rejection and thoughts and fears of possible abandonment. Overall, the features of BPD. include unusually intense sensitivity in relationships with others, difficulty regulating emotions, and impulsivity. Other symptoms may include feeling unsure of one's personal identity, morals, and values, having paranoid thoughts when feeling stressed, & severe dissociation.

Behaviour: Impulsive behaviour is common, including substance or alcohol abuse, eating disorders, unprotected sex or indiscriminate sex with multiple partners, reckless spending, and reckless driving. Impulsive behaviour may also include leaving jobs or relationships, running away, and self-injury. People with BPD act impulsively because it gives them immediate relief from their emotional pain. However, in the long term, people with BPD suffer increased pain from the shame and guilt that follow such actions. A cycle often begins in which people with BPD feel emotional pain, engage in impulsive behaviour to relieve that pain, feel shame and guilt over their actions, feel emotional pain from the shame and guilt, and then experience stronger urges to engage in impulsive behaviour to relieve the new pain. As time goes on, impulsive behaviour may become an automatic response to emotional pain.

Interpersonal relationships: People with BPD can be very sensitive to the way others treat them, by feeling intense joy and gratitude at perceived expressions of kindness, and intense sadness or anger at perceived criticism or hurtfulness. Their feelings about others often shift from admiration or love to anger or dislike after a disappointment, a perceived threat of losing someone, or a perceived loss of esteem in the eyes of someone they value. This phenomenon, sometimes called splitting, includes a shift from idealizing others to devaluing them.

Combined with mood disturbances, idealization and devaluation can undermine relationships with family, friends, and co-workers. Self-image can also change rapidly from healthy to unhealthy. While strongly desiring intimacy, people with BPD tend toward insecure, avoidant or ambivalent, or fearfully preoccupied attachment patterns in relationships, & they often view the world as dangerous and malevolent. BPD, like other personality disorders, is linked to increased levels of chronic stress and conflict in romantic relationships, less satisfaction on the part of romantic partners.

Sense of self: People with BPD tend to have trouble seeing a clear picture of their identity. In particular, they tend to have difficulty knowing what they value, believe, prefer, and enjoy. They are often unsure about their long-term goals for relationships & jobs. This difficulty with knowing who they are and what they value can cause people with BPD to experience feeling "empty" and "lost". Psychopathy is a personality disorder partly characterized by antisocial & aggressive behaviours, as well as emotional and interpersonal deficits including shallow emotions and a lack of remorse and empathy. One diagnostic criterion of narcissistic personality disorder is a lack of empathy, an unwillingness or inability to recognize or identify with the feelings and needs of others. Characteristics of schizoid personality disorder include emotional coldness, detachment and impaired affect corresponding with an inability to be empathetic and sensitive towards others.

I'm saying all this with a Smile in my heart ~ no games. I've been hoping for this opening reconnection one day for y/our realization of the deep love that we felt for each other to be truly recognized ~ Thank you for sharing your feelings with me which I always believed in too. It wasn't just my passion, infatuation, attachment, a dream of Psychedelia! It is a healing for my spirit to know that you feel the same. I know I saw that light sparkling in your eyes. I never had a doubt then you left me in such loss and pain that my crystal smashed to pieces and I wondered if I'd ever see you again! Was it just Egoic, delusion, an ecstatic state of romance, a magic trance to deceive 'me' or did we really look into each other's heart and dance? I did my best to hold your soul but you flew on your journey where I was not invited. I asked the Universe if true for directions to a Higher Consciousness Unconditional Love, letting you go or was it just my Complete Illusion? I can't get my head around that one even tho' it seems to make a lot of sense, it doesn't seem right It's a concept that has become the core of Eastern philosophies ~ and hard to argue it! Yet I would more likely say avoid sadness and disappointment by expecting everything from everyone but these are all projections of the mind to protect us; Fair enough. BUT as an overall view it's putting limits on life that hasn't happened and so won't happen. It's another Control mechanism. It's EXCELLENT to keep it in our minds as a GUIDE but not to put up a Mental wall because that is stopping new experience. "She deliberately and completely avoided you because she knew that you still Loved her!" 'It is better to have Loved and lost than to have never Loved' That's not true because we never lose! Whatever we experience with an open heart is the Ultimate even though we might end up in the darkness because of our 'Expectations'. Golden Wings

I am so happy to get such a letter from you, I've waited a long time for this awareness to appear and naturally express itself.

The feelings I always had in my Heart for you are still alive.

I Never Stopped Loving you ~ the love we shared is Magical.

*I told you many times that in my experience it is Rare to have such DEEP feelings. I still love you of course. I never switched you Off ~ as I always believed that what we surrendered to each other was our Purest love. I'm very very happy that finally you came to realise, not deny this true bliss we enjoyed that made our hearts and spirits smile and fly with so much happiness and that this is the wonderful light guiding our lives. Is this the big lesson we've learnt? A Real Love or a madly delusional Passion poem? Not to be negative or cynical in this crazy world of our mind's attachments, of infatuation and ego's desperate illusions and fears ~ but harmoniousness within such deep connecting, trusting eyes. I entered this experience with you to Know these BEAUTIFUL sensations, feelings between a man & a woman, diving to the core. You gave me everything, that's why it still touches our Souls' Space ~ On the other side that love as you know well can be extremely painful because I allowed myself to be so open with you. I tried to hold the balance but I decided to jump over the edge ~ with You and to Trust in the Universe * that was my choice. I do not regret it but I paid a heavy price of despair when you left me in the way you did. I know the Real suffering you had; Now I don't know anything of your life! Are you still in your relationship, it sounds like you have this connection, you've made that vital choice for yourself? I cannot love you in that way if you're with another. I'm free, y/our love lifts me to the light ~ I'm saying all of this with a Smile in my heart ~ no hidden Ego games. Love Is Conscious

Your last message about the love we shared was amazing and true and when I said 'Thank You' I meant it because you finally got it together enough to recognise what we Shared and what I did for you.

It sounded so beautiful and you captured all the Magic, you also realised some of your own behaviour. I had waited a very long time for you to do this. You put a lot of intelligent thought, Soul and feeling into it.. You were being honest. It was a wonderful way to clear things up and move on with only positive memories. I got all of that! When you first walked into my life you said two things were important, Honesty and respect. You also said that you had a very big lesson to learn from being with me & that I would break your heart! (Which I would never do). The fact that you could write such a letter showed that the dream we created, I had successfully kept it intact so You suffered No psychological or emotional scarring from me in this Separation and you would feel ok to eventually reflect this ~ not going into some dark hole of guilt, anger or resentment!

Your letter was a sweet poem I loved it but you missed out one chapter and I hope it's not the final chapter. This is one that only I could write and so I send it to you now to give another aspect to the one you have. We both agree with this Amazing Love we shared and how deep it was. When it goes so deep because we opened ourselves up so fully to each other through trust & respect then when that 'changes' there are obviously going to be powerful Consequences, as we know!

I wrote a few letters to you about what I was feeling and at the same time I was trying everything to still hold up these feelings of love & light not letting them just disappear forever! I wanted to be there for you and to always help you get through your Hell; Which I have done!

This is how I try to live my life and to be conscious, aware and love unconditionally not just for 'ME'

I wrote these letters not with the intention of sending them to you but for my own healing. Also to be honest and not just let you believe that I was able to come through this with no suffering! My love for you was so full & spiritual but also with the deepest Sensitivity of a Man in passionate love with a woman. I have absolutely no regrets for having shared this with you ~You know that.

I'm happy now to finally get your message and to finish my healing!
If you have any respect left for me and you still honour the love that we had and why wouldn't you, here is a letter about my feelings of how I felt about our separation. I wrote it a while ago to help me to come to terms with things and to exorcise this pain and negativity I had because I was holding up a big lie and I needed to confront it. I hope it helps You to understand the complex feelings that exist in Love at the extremely sensitive levels that existed between me and you and we can both move ~ forward. I didn't write it to blame you, what good does that do for me now it only makes for bitterness (and I take my responsibility in this too and hope you forgive me) but to try to show the 'Negative curse' & to realise that I cannot hold up any light of truth in a 'Higher' relationship I'd hoped to have, with it still unspoken. They are Observations & I hope you read this as an insight into your behavioral patterns at the deepest level of your feelings which can only come from someone who shared in them with you. Hopefully you'll learn something about parts of yourself; How your denial, rejection & negative behaviour effects people who only wanted to love you! Don't take this as a personal Attack it's not! What had I done to cause you to behave in such an angry, negative & resentful way making excuses? This is me you're treating like this, the person who you say you loved and opened up your Heart to? Ok so you went off, changed me/us for another lifestyle! I stepped back made it easy, never interfered (I was given no other choice and its suddenness was a Devastating SHOCK!) except to want to keep in *touch please! Is this really the great lesson you came to learn from me? Is this what Your * Love finally turns into Baby! Is it what you truly mean when you say, 'I'm the Only one that knows who you are'*

Conscious ~ Honesty & Respect of Love/r

From the start of this letter I want you to keep in mind everything I did for you. You most probably wouldn't have the life you have now in Goa happy with your children if it wasn't for me. I don't say this to make you guilty but to make you remember that I was always there for you yet you ended up treating me in the worst way possible by leaving me for someone else and not even telling me for over several months whilst I thought I was giving you Space to realise what we had as you knew it to be true. Yet you dumped me, you betrayed me, our sacred trust, you lied, were deceitful and your anger and selfish ego allowed a relationship to develop behind my back. You will never admit this, so far you have denied the truth of this and given me some simple, stupid reasoning why it happened. You treated me as an Idiot(action) because you had lost all respect and honesty. I gave you this free Space to express yourself, yet you still played this Negative game. I allowed you to speak to me, to behave with me in such a horrible way, to see who you were & what you understood, what you were conscious of and cared for!

(Asking me to leave you at 11pm each night with the relationship we'd had was such a f... horrible emotional experience for me but I put up with it not wanting to piss you off & cause you to react in such dismissive ways! The scenes by S. valley beach were the most terrible abuse for treating me as a real Nobody because you selectedly had changed your 'lifestyle' and in your letter you have no memories of any of this it seems and when you asked me to come round for a smoke because 'You had nothing to smoke!' That's a Mental haze! What the fuck, are you conscious of any of this and how it's affected me, a Lover in your life!? You can see this also as a Control pattern to get your own way depending who the person is in the dynamic and I also allowed this to try and hold onto you & what we meant together.

I put myself in this same sad situation when you left me, trying to hold you somehow, not wanting to lose you but as you've admitted this abuse has happened so why pretend it was all Roses. I'm now Releasing myself from the promise I made to myself to always be there for you as a Light worker because you're still unaware of my suffering which came out of being in love with you and you saying the same to me. This allows me to also let you go on that level & so be free in my life accepting the Reality that you chose a 'new lifestyle' You can blame me and say it was my 'detachment' with your children too but that's something I tried to explain the day you walked into my life. I did my best & never lied but you cut me out of that too. This is not to blame you but to inform you of Consequences to someone you say in your last letter meant so much to you but in reality aren't they just lovely words and you have no other understanding? You said I helped you find what you were looking for in Life for it to be complete but it was totally dishonest. You say you needed me or you would have fallen apart but where was the empathy for me; only complete denial!?

What effect do you think that might have on me, is this the way you respond to your ~ 'Light worker?' It's taking the piss, can I accept you couldn't do anything else? I forgive you but I want you to realise this!

You want me to make a copy of your book which was the highlight of the magical expression of our love whilst you have treated me, this person who always was there for you, who always wanted to carry on this love with you, in the most despicable way. Obviously this pattern of behaviour you understood as 'normal reactions!' How did I continue with it, this negativity, anger, emotional abuse & aggression? I have seen it all before and I can understand it! You ultimately have the right to do what you want but we had a relationship of deep trust that normally is to be treated carefully or there is deep pain and suffering.

Basic stuff but you didn't care at all because you were overcome by only ~ what you wanted. You cared nothing for me & yet were happy to enjoy my energy when it suited you!

I went through a Nightmare to continue to keep this connection of us together & that is fine but you still have no appreciation of your actions. I am writing this letter because I cannot continue holding up the light when you still won't recognize your duplicitous behavior to me.

Now I have finally received the clearer picture of what happened even if you can't see or admit it. How your subconscious' Karma & desires were affecting your behavior. How your insecure mind was madly 'scheming to get what you wanted without any thought for me!' Why me? Because I was still in your life as a person who deserved some truth & respect. Don't put me in a pattern of those others close to you, who have wronged you and whom you despise!

You changed completely in December since you went to work and spent all your time ~ with a man who you already knew well and by then you had basically denied me/us in your life, you had your own agenda going on and I didn't fit into it because you allowed yourself to disconnect from me for your own reasons. I saw you once a week and you didn't seem to realise what was happening to us, at least so I thought. You kept saying you were too tired and busy with school and kids; I believed you and gave you that trusting Space ~

Yes now I understand why you had all these bad moods with me for no apparent reason but you kept your Feelings Secret from me and allowed me to continue to believe in our relationship and to go through another two months believing in you/us, in our truth and respect ~ but you had already broken that sacred bond. You said I'm maybe the one who understands you best! Yes I do I see your highs & lows. You say I care when you sent me your messages to your sister. Yes I do; but now I experienced the negative energy that you have, I never saw that one coming at all Baby! I always held the Spiritual light up for you/us, Love Consciousness of ecstatic states & their changing ~ When the Lover is dumped at that depth in such a way it's a long journey back to Heal a Heart & Spirit! By expressing this I can heal this 'poisoning' in my heart, from this Disbelief that someone who I loved, who knew how much I felt for them could behave in such a selfish, cruel, arrogant & ignorant way! You even seemed to enjoy it when I finally found out 'that you were involved with someone' ~ you got a thrill seeing me in despair and pain, you wanted to hurt me for some reason as a sign of your own powerful, egoist-Self. This is another common pattern and you behaved in such a low way yet in your delusion you say you were always thinking of me!

How could you have been, how is it possible? It was all so easy for you! I tell you with no malice but great disappointment & sadness that such a beautiful love relationship could degenerate into such nasty bullshit.

You do not realise what you/we had, to destroy it in that way.

I don't let lovers in my life go easy but I am releasing myself from the bonds we have ~ I can't pretend by sending you a copy of this book that you are the same person. Why do you even ask me for it?

Do you have no sense of insulting my feelings again? Are you so naive, so self-centred, so blind, thinking that you can throw anything at me and as I'm open hearted and trying to practice Love that I will put up with it all! Is this how you respond to my feelings of Love by abusing them? See what reactions develop what satisfaction you get!

I cannot pretend this is cool, it is a full dishonour of what we had because you destroyed that/us/me in such a bad way and because you won't admit it or take responsibility for your actions; Who cares!

It took me this long to realise some of your behavioural patterns!

As I say, I was the person who stood by you I gave you all my Love ~ I always told you that yet you've purposely killed it and left me terrible mental-emotions to deal with that you were fully Unconscious of or not! Why do that to me the one who was always there for you? You say that you don't know how I feel that's because you didn't give a fuck about how I feel, you switched it off! That one night you saw me at the bar with a girl I know how much of a shock that was even though you'd kept saying it was over and yet it never was! You know how painful that was, you had those feelings, you are not so insensitive! So try & imagine if you will how it was for me but 100 times more painful because your affair went on behind my back for over two months! You just said, "I would have broken you if you hadn't got me back"

*I saw your pain then and I would never do that because I felt the pain too and I knew what the consequences would be for you if I left you! I couldn't do it anyway because I loved you. You saw, witnessed also your friend going crazy with her breakup did you Not realise that I was Devastated too; would it have made any difference to your disdain? From December it was certainly happening even if you won't admit it! It was never right then (Xmas & New Year's Eve!!!) and that's why in January, Intuitively I had to make my 'cry from the heart' to seriously ask you what was happening by walking away & giving you time to Realise * 'If you don't give the flower water it will wither and die ~'*

A simple truth!

Normally we might have come back together I hoped to but because of this other relationship happening it was such an easy way out for you to walk away with no responsibility, remorse, pain or Awareness and stay away for over two months without a word to me by way of explanation and thinking, 'Fuck him then!' You say you thought I had dumped you that is absolute bullshit you made no effort, never were really interested to even ask me what was happening even though it was clear as you'd chosen to go already! Easy for you to do in this extreme and so Selfish. You dumped me in such a horrible way, it's never nice and was not helped in any way by you in fact the opposite like treating me as if I never existed! Did I really mean so little to you even though you keep saying I did so much to Open you and I know that I did! It seems you can't accept that truth and so come up with simplified versions of events and so I tried to work with that reality! Why bother? Because such experiences together mean something! You say, 'go with the flow' that's fine too but treat people properly not like shit! Why do that anyway to a caring person such as me ~ in your life, what did I do to hurt you so much, to bring such anger into your heart? OK it was tough but not to end it behind my back; avoiding me like that, we live in the same village with same friends! I can't go on pretending this never happened it is too painful for Me and I have to make this clear because you are in denial and don't really give a fuck because you've moved on to the next better thing and 'It is as it is!' ~ It's impossible that you are Unconscious about this even though you behave like nothing really happened, it's not a big deal! Well Dearest you need to have More * empathy in this world of human relationships! OK you can say 'well fuck him and forget it' that's the easy way. It doesn't alleviate the pain I've had because of your deception, unfaithfulness, betrayal, rejections over that time but it helps me to finally make it clear to you my darling and allow this truth to heal my heart! A friend finally told me when I asked about you; "She's involved with someone else, didn't you know?"

Remember I am not blaming you I am sharing an expression of the experience I had with you. As you did I am giving it closure! You may be unaware of these things when in stress and anger, not satisfied with your expectations, needs, until you get it fulfilled; 'Whatever the situation, where is the appearance of Love' looking for someone else. It's all Our own Ego trip, human reaction, our emotional, impulsive ~ instinctive drive. When getting what you need you are wonderful like all of us and Being aware of this! When depressed, someone criticizes you there is an immediate negative reaction ~ self-defensive which is a Power trip to Control the situation & have the will to say, 'fuck you then!' to those who love you but 'criticised you'. It seems I have to try to accept this crazy situation or lose you ~ even though later there may be regrets!

Relationship patterns! It made me scared to be so candid for Fear of losing what I most wanted to keep, You! You were my beautiful muse, my Lover, my Smiling, creative spirit geisha. Shit appears to happen, conditioned like this all the time you might think from seeing others ~ these doubtful projections seem to be the way these relationships end!

But it isn't like that for me, in the world that I live in, the world that you say you understood, loved & was truly inspired by. There's full forgiveness and understanding but saying such things to my face as, "I wouldn't have asked you here if I didn't need a smoke." Ego-reaction, resentment; Rejecting everything is tough even for me from the lips of such a love! I say this with true feeling not to fuck you up but to share these feelings that I've been going through for a long time now. As you say I gave you your freedom to live again! I wouldn't have done it in that way if I'd known the truth of what had been happening. I did give you Space to think about us out of my deepest love but I didn't realize how I would be repaid! Your feelings were dreaming somewhere else!

You never said what was going on even when you were confused, distraught; Secrets you chose not to reveal nor to be honest with me & there are Consequences in this Real world of human, Love feelings! Completely denying my existence as if we hadn't any Heart between us, fully rejecting me down on the beach! You've forgotten this ignorance for someone who shared such an Amazing love relationship with you?

Is there any respect for me, for the Love poems that you wrote in this beautiful book for me and from your truly knowing that there are only a very few people in your life who have always been there ~ so much for you? If you can throw that/me in the rubbish in such a way and then carry on in life like that, then don't pretend in higher ideals, it's egotistic bullshit, just what You want and I'm sure you can see a prior pattern. If you want to communicate in the future in some way then as your first words to me were ~ 'with Respect and honesty.'

Where was it? This dream you have of being in Spirit, being truly Conscious depends on our honest, unselfish actions not just on easy words, excuses & emotional Reactions done to get Control.

'Untruths' happened so I can't continue to give you this higher energy ~ inspiration as if nothing ever happened because I/we are frightened to acknowledge what really went on, this nasty ending of our relationship, our open intimacy in our being together as One & carry on pretending it's all fine because of memories ~ that once existed in these beautiful words of the Goddess, of true love alive in feelings deep in y/our heart. What went so so wrong to change that? It changed for you and it was never the same since I had to leave but especially since my return to be with you in August. You never gave me/us a chance. You were in a big stress, running away from me all the time. I found reasons why and I did everything to hold our Love up but it did nothing for you and it finally made me so unhappy too. Yet you said you loved me, that you always were thinking of me that it was too painful yet you did nothing to bring that love back! Why?

I try to be a Light worker. I am someone who you will always Love because I gave you back meaning in your life and Opened up and freed your heart to love. You keep saying this but in practice you did Nothing to keep it alive only continuing in Fears, doubt & negativity.

Yet I carried on with the belief that you would come back to me ~ How could you give up such an Amazing Connection like we had? But you did & you just kept on with the empty words and I carried on hoping your love feelings were still there. Hey*Cosmic

“I hope you have found a beautiful direction in your life.
Without any expectations I just wanted you to know because I would want to know ~ that my life didn't work out ~ that my dream didn't happen.
I wanted you to know that I look back on what we had together and I believe it was the best few years of my life.
In retrospect we always see the truth.

He never really wanted me, I was never the one for him.
I fell deeply again because that's what I do. He ended our story.
Now after a few months he is planning a life with someone he never met. I am broken again.”

“I am still at work, my best friends don't talk to me anymore.
I am alone. I have to start again. I don't know what to do. Karma I guess for breaking your soul ~ I am sorry. I am not writing to gain sympathy or to be forgiven or to make myself feel better or to ask anything of you.
Just to connect and tell you I will always regret how much pain I made you feel. Sometimes it is impossible to move forward in your own life without destroying another. I want to know you are happy x”

I am your light worker help me to bring you back into the light

Hallo Baby I hope you are jumping through the forest and running thru the Monsoon rains, I hope you are shining again your eyes alive.

Tell me how you feel if the storm clouds become too dark and share your spirit. Tell me how you feel when the sunbeams caress your face tell me if you see a cosmic rainbow.)

I want to see that smile in your face and eyes ~ I want to feel you are happy. I am being as completely honest as I can be.

I have been deeply hurt by you I am taking a big chance in communicating with someone who let me ~ your lover die slowly without any remorse only cruelty. But in Your first letter you realised that was important because you could empathise finally with my pain because of what's now happened to you.

I am going to try and support you out of your depression ~ You're intelligent but your behavioural swings are extreme.

I have known your ups and downs over a long enough time down too although I have some insight but we have unique behavioural patterns.

There is Absolutely No blame if I say something you don't like please don't take it as a negative reproach. I have read what your closest family thinks of you and it was not the woman I knew but it was a unified view! I fought beside you against that view, but we have to take it into account. You have been hurt it's terrible IT was Terrible for me too, we are human beings with deep feelings and craving mental & physical attachments

Reflecting a reality ~ Manifest your best version of Happiness

Friendship!

Last time you reconnected with me because your life had gone to shit and you desperately needed support, it seems this 'communication' has now ended. From what happened to you finally you also seemed to realize the consequences of one's actions especially to the people who had opened up in love and trust and been betrayed. You talked about friendship and communication and being lost. Obviously you just needed help as you said and no one else gave a shit.

I have been in a depression for the last 18 months and I understood deeply the loss and despair therefore I gave you my last bit of light as obviously I didn't want you to suffer the same negative feelings of total rejection and denial as I had experienced from you! I was amazed how you could reopen contact ~ only when it suited Your own grief!

It's not my belief to inflict pain if it can be avoided so I came back into your negative World and gave you what you needed from someone you could believe in. It was a big decision on my part after the way you had treated me. I know you are smart enough to realise this if you ever think about it. It seems from your trip to the UK that you were smiling again and getting some love since then you've disappeared. There is no sense in anything but what You need, with No obligations to anyone else! And so 'It is as it is' ~ How to realise the reality of this nihilistic perception in you?

Fine I take full responsibility for what happens to me although ~ there are emotional catalyts. This letter is not to discuss this again but to let you know that I feel that we have come to the end of our journey together and that I have no more light to give you and you certainly gave me nothing back! It is what it is ~ Now it's the end and I am moving on with my life as I have to do under the circumstances. I hope you are doing the same and you find what you are looking for ~

Greedy Dreams

So now you get a feeling of what I went through the last two years.

August 6th I returned to Anjuna to full stress, your negativity that I couldn't change, I'm sorry! The last 18 months I've been going through grief, depression. Why? Who really knows maybe it is all my fault! Why? My heart slowly died waiting for something, a smile, a jest. But there was absolutely no response from someone I loved and trusted. The full on betrayal, rejection, denial! The no response from the muse who said, 'in retrospect it was the best time of my life' but still had to destroy it ~ 'A Fuck you!' to my memory in order to continue in her new Egocentric-desire reflecting only her own happiness; where's Love consciousness? It was you who destroyed it and us and was the catalyst for a cruel, very painful journey for me into an emotional * spiritual dark abyss. Yes 'It is at it is' as you are finding out! How easy are those words but how difficult when it is You who has to come out of the despair of loss & nothingness. I never had any sexual relationship since; I lost the desire! Yes it takes time to come back and each one is different but as you see it's not so easy to play games with the mind. To feel like you don't exist ~ though that love of your life, who promised you Paradise and bliss with her eyes and body is sitting next to you in grim silence! But she has her heart on another vision ~ You don't fit into that dream and she's Unconscious...

'Welcome to Reality' A torture to find that someone can lie, manoeuvre behind your back without a word or honest hint to give the Love proper closure. It's selfish and each one has the right to do what we want and let's all escape in that fluffy fairy dust tale; But it's very dangerous if you lose the balance of your awareness & get lost in infatuation. You played your game it was real, but I cannot allow that light worker to upset it so I won't see him for 5 months, I'll only enjoy what gives me pleasure. Until it fucks up ~ after somehow fucking everyone off who loved you and cared. Some might call it a type of Borderline personality disorder ~ egotistical, extreme feeling of highs & lows with a lack of any remorse or empathy :)

A fearful questioning of one's own self Identity, I don't know! And it's not to blame anyone but to become Conscious, we're all seeking the truth of who we are but Please be kind! Then lost in Space the one she comes back to for help is the one who she helped put into deep misery but who somehow still holds up a light! Of course he would do everything to save her from going through the same Hellish ordeal even though there is real wisdom found in such suffering & this was the destiny put in front of him! How could anyone be unsympathetic to their beloved when they're hurt? But it would be easier and more sane to say, 'It is as it is' and yes to burn all memories & hopes or future expectations just as had happened to me 'I have no one, I am lost, I do not know what to do, I have no friends ~ my life is destroyed.' How would you respond? Did you even think to ask me how I felt whilst I was drowning alone ~ my heart broken as a consequence of my extreme passionate attachment with you?

So you will have to suffer I am sorry and it's better to forget me and I forget you as you are not ready for communication or for giving me anything it's only about what you want. And you have that right but when another loves you there is a conscious respect; to not get what you want by destroying another as you say but you will find this out yourself and see what it is to have a broken heart and to reflect on the truth either spiritually, astrologically, humanly or whatever it is ~

I had so much compassion that I came back to help you and give you my light. Yet you still don't know, it's not about just taking the fruit and not watering the tree. What about me the one who gave you love who you say you loved & you did! You are so afraid and guilty and negative & hurt and I feel all of that pain but I cannot be used and abused again so I want to let you go in peace while you are now around people who care for you ~ Try to understand & make a new life direction ☺

*You are a super Goddess, You were my Angel of delight, my Soul mate my Sexy muse, you're very smart, true and creative and loyal; you need to believe in yourself. I thank you for all the Amazingly, Wonderful times we shared in love. I hope you recover but as it is without understanding I /we cannot move forward into a new dimension of light*life while holding onto all the negativities we still have!*

I need to know

*If I still exist in any way as 'real' in your world, some communication ~ energy, feeling would be nice or has it turned into nothing? We have had very different experiences and I can't begin to ever explain that. It will be too hard to continue for me as I went through a depression and I need to come out & find some light again! I don't want to remember you and only have pain my pain, your pain? Would you even want to see me if I came back to Anjuna? You told me to expect nothing even in our 'friendship' I can't do that anymore. I really need some communication*energy or I have to let you go forever. You let me go ~ you were never my prisoner, you are free I always respected and loved you but I can't keep you in my heart any longer ~ I have always kept you there, a beautiful memory with light shining. You came back when you needed help and even so I came to be there for you. I don't understand how you're feeling now. Yes it was wonderful times that's why I'm still in touch. You made it very clear to me that You have different priorities & we have a lot of damage too from this best time of our lives, tell me how we continue in a meaningful way or not
Are you free enough this time to have a coffee with me?
Tell me your truth and let us evolve together from it.*

My Vision

Am I happy? Yes I am happy to be Alive and with my daughter someone giving me unconditional love. Yes I am happy to be able to see again ~ No I am not happy at all at the way you treated me like I never existed in your life, your complete denial of me as a person and rejection of all the love we shared together. Of course there was a lot of suffering for over a year as you well know. I couldn't believe that someone I loved & who said they loved me so deeply with their eyes could treat me so fucking cruelly! Finally You've somehow come to realise something of these feelings from your own experience that you wrote to me only because you needed someone to be there for you. Still 'It is as it is' ~ as you say and that is 'what you do!' Yes it is! You mention loyalty and I have been there for you, always. I'm amazed you wrote to me but that was for You something you needed to relieve something in you it was not for me. I don't believe you care if I'm really happy as in fact you haven't really communicated with me since.

You've never really bothered again I don't know why. I gave you the chance to be a friend but that's obviously not possible. I opened up again to be there for you to share something I believe in Do you know what you really want and what are you willing to share in return? It seems nothing!

I'm pissed off that I'm still writing this stuff to you again, if you want to be in touch with me do it for Me as you're feeling for me too not just because of what you need from me. Even though you said 'with no expectations' ~ but you seemed desperate and I naturally responded otherwise I would have behaved just like you which I could never do! I am tired of this, I don't know what you really want even though now you agree we did have something very magical as I have told you so many times!

You destroyed it and you let me and my love slowly die alone, you never once responded to My Pain! I don't want it any more. You either make some effort to share some feeling with me or not.

*Thank you I am in a dark place. Life is like that.
Why are you still there after everything I have done?
How do you let go when your life is turned upside down?
Are you happy where you are?
I think about you even though I don't stay in touch.
It is hard to accept positive energy when you have nothing to return.
I am sorry for every moment I hurt you Cosmic and I am grateful for the love you gave to me ~ Eternally*

*I wouldn't be who I am, who I aspire to be if I didn't try hard to hold up the light * It's true I was in a black hole for 18 months struggling at the deepest levels just like you are. (Time is a great healer) This sharing of Honest feelings really helps so did living with my daughter who gives me unconditional Love*Somehow I held it up and I am happy that i can still share this truth with you as I have always endeavored to do. I don't really know why I am like that ~ finding the balance between holding the light and letting go and escaping the turmoil and despair of the Mind. I have had no sexy muse lover since you but 'It is as it is ~ I have been through similar experiences before! My vision, lesson of life has been to still try to maintain something beautiful, Isn't this what a (mystical) poet does?
When you go through that dark emotional valley you have to believe in something good ~ for example your children as I did with my daughter or the truths of the heart ~ trusting those moments of being in Love, being truly inspired even the truth of dealing with the pain, doubts, guilt, denial, rejection! This is the biggest of lessons, it's not TV this is REAL profound inter/human behavior and its unforeseen consequences; psychological ~ emotional, physical, spiritual! Being able to realise this makes us more Conscious of LIFE ~ You get Power to eventually come through the pain of suffering, loss, negativity, resentment, doubt, grief, fear, lonely despair I always loved the Ideal of a Romantic, sensitive, happy, Compassionate* *Bodhisattva and I am very Thankful that I have such an Inspirational ~ guide and I can freely share that with people I love and in my creations. I am a human like everyone else but I refuse to hate which in effect only destroys me more! I know that can be easy to say but I try for this higher Ideal. Call it Love call it Spirit, call it obsessive, stupid even, I don't know, I feel it gives my life meaning. That's why I am a traveller, living in Goa, that's why I love you the way I do. That's what fills my poems * art work. Ultimately You/we are dealing with a deep multi dimensional lesson, be brave embrace it; sounds crazy but be thankful! By embracing with this higher understanding you'll let it go ~ naturally. I've felt your open heart & I know you have great, sincere qualities! Yes It was very hard getting no energy back, for that reason I try to share this energy ~ with you now but remember you have people who love you & forgive you and wish that you find true blissx.*

*Hallo Baby * what I said earlier is All true but now it's finally happened to me. I'm feeling ill, tired, lost in a depression too. I Am empty, exhausted, emotionally and physically. This continued - drama is ultimately My own response to what is given to me. Your experience is not for me to Judge. If you could send me some positive light/loving energy it would be Very Healing revitalizing but by now I have come to expect nothing and I have no more energy left, no more light to give! This was always my choice, I don't regret trying to keep a Connection of light in this darkness with you as long as I could because of who I am & the Love memories & Creative Spirit we shared but I can only hold it up for so long alone! With so much pain, anger, resentment, negativity existing there is a Limit to what I can accept emotionally support & try to + lovingly transform. Of course You're Free to live your own heart 's desires I can't Control, analyse it. You can either feel it or you can't and you know the difference! I don't really know the truth of what is in your life ~ of what you want to share, your visions, hopes, your loves, dreams, even friendship? But if you feel nothing more*

+ for me please tell me so I can let you/us go, renew my life & come out of this dark, broken relationship which doesn't seem (even telepathically) really to be going anywhere ~ or change it x

Thank you for unfriending me. Thank you for understanding.

Thank you for showing me there is no meaning to love.

You are the only person in this world I have ever felt true happiness with.
I am sorry that the reality we live in didn't make it easy to sustain. I have passed you in Anjuna. I know you are here. I hope if we meet you will not unfriend me in reality. If it makes you feel better, Karma came right back and showed me how painful it is to be rejected by someone you devoted your soul to. I never intended to hurt you so much.

I didn't know any other way. I am sorry

That's the point they don't know, nobody does

They can't KNOW ~ they're/we're Unconscious responses
because of limited Mind ~ All you can do is Forgive them/us.

There's the Movement of Ego

There's a Tremendous need for negativity with some people!
Thinking 'I' know and they f....g don't Know anything!
You cannot know what's really happening!

Then you see beyond that thinking, what Spirit is!
Happens collectively, keeps on happening ~

"It will be possible to describe everything scientifically, but it would make no sense; it would be without meaning, as if you described a Beethoven symphony as a variation of wave pressure ~ Concerning matter, we have been all wrong. What we have called matter is energy, whose vibration ~ has been so lowered to be perceptible to the senses. There is no matter"

You are a Goddess!

Anthony De Mello

“As soon as you look at the world through an ideology you are finished.

No reality fits an ideology. Life is beyond that. People are always searching for a meaning to life. But life has no meaning; it cannot have meaning because meaning is a formula; meaning is something that makes sense to the mind. Every time you make sense out of reality, you bump into something that destroys the sense you made. Meaning is only found when you go beyond meaning. Life only makes sense when you perceive it as mystery & it makes no sense to the conceptualized mind.”
