A Subliminal Welcome to 1984 Redux

'Unthinkingly un-critical, cult-like Trump supporters don't realize ~ that they have been socially engineered, their behaviour, opinions and beliefs modified. Essentially, they have been brainwashed by sophisticated algorithms deployed by companies like U.K.-based Cambridge Analytica and Alamo. Both companies operate through data-mining and planting fake news and propaganda on the pages of people who have revealed themselves, primarily through their record of 'Likes', to have a vulnerability, or susceptibility, toward some easily exploited and manipulated bias or fear—pro-Brexit, bias among Americans or Canadians, for example, predisposing them to certain planted misinformation and propaganda, privileging authoritarian trends, or evidence of subconscious misogynistic beliefs, anti-feminism, or incipient racism. These inclinations, though thought by their hosts to be private, or even held secret, are very evident to the company psychologists and behavioural scientists analysing the true cash product of 'free' social networks, the users' mined data. Evidence of gun collection, NRA membership, or search patterns for gun enthusiasts will provide a basis for targeted ads and 'news' stories in a social network account. From as few as 5000 increments of mined data on any individual's online activity, psychographic profilers claim to know what your next move will be a good deal earlier than you do. Cambridge Analytica, the London-based outfit that boasts an ability to target voters based on their unconscious psychological biases, worked behind the scenes in both the Vote Leave campaign and the Trump campaign. The campaign director of Vote Leave for the Brexit referendum has said of their strategical deployment of Cambridge Analytica, "If you want to make big improvements in communication, hire physicists" Claiming to have built psychological profiles using 5,000 separate pieces of data on 220 million American voters, Cambridge Analytica algorithms knew their quirks and nuances and daily habits and was able to target them individually. "They were using 40-50,000 different variants of ad every day that were continuously measuring responses and then adapting and evolving based on that response," according to Martin Moore of Kings College (Cadwalladr, Dec. 4, 2016). Because these companies have so much data on individuals and they use such phenomenally powerful distribution networks, they enable campaigns to bypass a lot of existing laws. "It's all done completely opaquely, and they can spend as much money as they like on particular locations.

Fake news is important but it's only one part of it.

These companies have found a way of transgressing 150 years of legislation that we've developed to make elections fair and open".

Cambridge Analytica the company, which revolutionized the American political scene in 2012, boasts of its ability to assemble so-called psychographic profiles of American voters based on five dominant personality traits: openness, conscientiousness, extraversion, agreeableness, and neuroticism. It then targets them with uniquely crafted messages based on their digitally revealed unconscious biases. Their emphasis on psychology differentiates them as a company from traditional data firms that specialize in 'microtargeting,' which tracks consumer data and behaviour to target voters. Cambridge Analytica's method was, wrote Bloomberg's Sasha Issenberg, "the most audacious new analytical innovation foisted on American politics this year" (Ibid.). On its website, it advertises, "a comprehensive range of analytics and engagement services are proven game changers that deliver smart solutions and produce real results," including, "Data Acquisition, Predictive Analytics, Audience Insight and Digital Marketing'.

Don't Ask

'SCL Group'<sup>[1]</sup> (formerly Strategic Communication Laboratories<sup>[1]</sup>) was a private British behavioural research and strategic communication company.<sup>[2]</sup> In the United States, SCL has gained public recognition mainly through its affiliated corporation Cambridge Analytica.<sup>[3]</sup> It performs data mining and data analysis on its audience. Based on results, communications will be specifically targeted to key audience groups to modify behaviour in accordance with the goal of SCL's client. The company describes itself as a "global election management agency." Or brainwashing!

Activities

'After initial commercial success, SCL expanded into military and political arenas. It became known for alleged involvement "in military disinformation campaigns to social media branding and voter targeting".<sup>[10]</sup> In 2005, "with a glitzy exhibit" at the Defence Security Equipment International (DSEI), "the United Kingdom's largest show case for military technology", SCL demonstrated its capacity in 'influence operations': 'to help orchestrate a sophisticated campaign of mass deception' on the public of a big city like London.

According to its website, SCL has participated in over 25 international political and electoral campaigns since 1994.<sup>[4]</sup>

SCL's involvement in the political world has been primarily in the developing world where it has been used by the military and politicians to study and manipulate public opinion and political will. Its uses have been called "psy ops" to provide insight into the thinking of the target audience. SCL claimed to be able to help foment coups.<sup>[11]</sup> According to its website, SCL has influenced elections in Italy, Latvia, Ukraine, Albania, Romania, South Africa, Nigeria, Kenya, Mauritius, India, Indonesia, St. Kitts & Nevis, the Philippines,<sup>[12]</sup> Thailand, Taiwan, Colombia, Antigua, St. Vincent, the Grenadines, Trinidad & Tobago

While the company initially got involved in elections in the United - Kingdom, it ceased to do so after 1997 as staff members did not exhibit the same 'aloof sensibility' as with projects abroad. Wikipedia

WASHINGTON: Wikistrat owned by Joel Zamel, an Israeli entrepreneur whose work has drawn the scrutiny of special counsel Robert Mueller, formed a strategic partnership with a data firm for President Donald Trump's campaign in a joint bid to win business from the U.S. government and other clients after 2016 election.' Put up for sale in 2016; reincarnated into WhiteKnight, based in the Philippines.

'If Wikistrat was engaged in intelligence collection, an obvious question arises: For whom? Much of the reporting has focused on Wikistrat's relationship so far with the United Arab Emirates. For instance, The New York Times recently reported a secretive Trump Tower meeting three months before the 2016 presidential election, between Donald Trump Jr., Zamel, and George Nader, an emissary for the UAE.

The meeting drew comparison to the infamous Trump Tower meeting between Trump Jr., Jared Kushner, Paul Manafort, and a Russian lawyer with ties to the Kremlin. Zamel is reported to have pitched Trump Jr. on a social-media manipulation strategy to help his father win the election. After Trump was elected, Nader is said to have paid Zamel a large sum of money, as much as $2 million. In light of the scrutiny of Zamel's ties to the UAE, it's natural that news coverage would focus on that country. But Wikistrat may, in fact, have stronger ties to Israel. Zamel is a citizen of Israel and master's graduate of IDC Herzliya - a small, elite college that's often compared to U.S. Ivy League schools - where he studied government, diplomacy, strategy, specializing in counterterrorism, homeland security. (The internal documents reviewed by The Daily Beast confirm that Zamel also owned the lion's share -86 percent of Wikistrat, the next biggest shareholder possessed less than 6 percent.

Though Wikistrat's website lists its location as Washington, Kadtko said the company was run out of Israel the entire time he worked there. A former Wikistrat employee confirmed the company was run out of Tel Aviv, with a D.C. office only handling sales and business development, he said. "He knew a whole lot of people there [in Israel]. One of his connections was the former head of [Israeli] intelligence directorate, Amos Yadlin." In fact, each of Wikistrat's principals listed Tel Aviv as their address in a 2015 copy of Wikistrat's Virginia business license. Former employees say that at the core of Wikistrat's leadership were three Israelis: Daniel Green, CTO, Elad Schaffer, formerly the COO and now the CEO, and Joel Zamel, the founder and until this year its CEO. "Those people were very close, and it wasn't just professional," one former employee said. That former employee added, "I had an initial conversation with Joel where I said, 'One of the issues you're going to run into, if you want to be focused on [U.S.] government work, you're going to run into problems every day because of the Israeli connection.' He said, 'Well, why is that? They're amazing allies?'" "There were many internal conversations [ref this] Israel is one of the top counterintelligence concerns for the U.S." One of the internal documents reviewed by The Daily Beast lists a former "major in [an] elite Israeli intelligence-analysis unit," Shay Hershkovitz, as its chief security officer and director of its analytic community. That document also describes Schaffer as a former "counterterrorism officer for Israeli intelligence." "Elad was involved in a very elite, select group of individuals performing a very important mission... dealing with the height of the global war on terrorism," one former employee said. "He did some collaborative work with U.S. special-operations counterparts in the Middle East dealing with threats from al Qaeda" The Daily Beast.

Cambridge Analytica faced mounting legal fees in the U.K.'s investigation of the firm and was rapidly losing clients, according to people familiar with the matter. In March 2018 it suspended its chief executive, Alexander Nix, after undercover journalists at British broadcaster Channel 4 released a video depicting him describing campaign tactics. He said the company had used, among them entrapping political opponents with bribes and sex. In the video, Nix said Cambridge Analytica used Israeli companies in its campaigns'.

'December 2016, Mr. Nader turned again to an internet company linked to Mr. Zamel - WhiteKnight, based in the Philippines - to purchase a presentation demonstrating the impact of social media campaigns on

*Mr. Trump's electoral victory. After the inauguration, Mr. Zamel and Mr. Nader visited the White House, meeting with Mr. Kushner and Mr. Bannon. At that time, Mr. Nader was promoting a plan to use private contractors to carry out economic sabotage against Iran, he hoped it, might coerce it to permanently abandon its nuclear program. The plan included efforts to deter Western companies from investing in Iran and operations to sow mistrust among Iranian officials. He advocated the project, which he estimated would cost about $300 million, to US, Emirati and Saudi officials'. NY Times, 5-19-2018. Mark Mazzetti, Rone Bergman and David D. ### Enforcing the Human Rights of Girls

'Bride kidnapping, also known as marriage by abduction or marriage by capture, is a practice in which a man abducts the woman he wishes to marry. Bride kidnapping has been practiced around the world and throughout history. It continues to occur in countries in Central Asia, Caucasus region, and parts of Africa, and among peoples as diverse as the Hmong in Southeast Asia, the Tzeltal in Mexico, Despite its illegality, in many primarily rural areas, bride kidnapping, known as ala kachuu (to take and flee), is an accepted, common way of taking a wife. Approximately half of all Kyrgyz marriages include bride kidnapping, of those kidnappings, two thirds are non-consensual. Research by NGO's give estimates from a low of 40% to between 68 and 75 percent of all marriages in Kyrgyzstan involved bride kidnapping'. Wikipedia.

'Under Riyadh' (Paraphrased, Wall Street Journal, 8/2011)

A Senior Saudi Cleric has issued a religious ruling making it 'permissible for fathers to marry off their young daughters even if they are in the cradle' "But it isn't permissible for their husbands to have sex with them unless they are capable of being placed beneath and bearing the weight of the men."

That Shariah religious ruling now called a Fatwa, decreed by Sheik al-Fawzan acting for prepubescent girls and Islamic men. "Those who are calling for a minimum age for marriage should fear God and not violate his laws or try to legislate things God did not permit" Men can have up to four wives if they can be fed. The King's suggestion that 'Women should now be allowed to work as supermarket cashiers, only for the job to be ruled off limits to the gender by the Grand Mufti, the country's highest religious leader. Women can't work, drive or be allowed to travel abroad or undergo surgery without the permission of a male relative. The clergy have stood behind the Kingdom's ruling family by issuing fatwas barring political protests while the government appears to back off promoting social changes' Where does Saudi Arabia stand in the modern family of nations?

'Indians have expressed horror at video footage of a teenage girl being sexually assaulted by a laughing mob of more than twelve men in a busy street outside a bar in NE India. No one intervened for up to 45 minutes during the attack which was filmed by an off-duty journalist and a cameraman from News-Live channel. The footage was broadcast on news channels prompting a debate on women's safety in India and asked why the journalists didn't intervene. Police have been criticized over their initial indifference towards the attack which took place just minutes from the nearest Police station!

The attack has highlighted the dangers of being a woman in India. A global poll last month voted India the worst G20 country for women, behind even Saudi Arabia. India's national commission for women said that the teenage victim had been treated like an animal and had cigarette burns all over her body'

This is another example of the grotesque treatment of women ~ A woman, executed by the Taliban for adultery, put on internet! There's long lists of inhumane treatment of women, of so called 'honor killings', to forced marriages of teenage girls in Pakistan, to the Qatif girl who was gang raped but ordered by a court in Saudi Arabia to be given 200 lashes for the crime of 'mingling ~ A Christian girl was framed by a Moslem imam for burning pages of the Koran, for which the penalty is death! Even more barbaric examples are the mass raping of Moslem women, estimated to be 20,000, as a militarily condoned 'objective' during the horrendous 1990's fascist war in Bosnia; the sex slavery and torture prisons!

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) is a milestone document in the history of human rights. Drafted by representatives with different legal, cultural backgrounds from all regions of the world the Declaration was proclaimed by the United Nations General Assembly in Paris on 10 December 1948 (General Assembly resolution 217 A) as a common standard of achievements for all peoples and all nations. It sets out, for the first time, fundamental human rights to be universally protected and it's been translated into over 500 languages.

Preamble

'Whereas recognition of the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world, Whereas disregard and contempt for human rights have resulted in barbarous acts which have outraged the conscience of mankind, and the advent of a world in which human beings shall enjoy freedom of speech and belief and freedom from fear and want has been proclaimed as the highest aspiration of common people, Whereas it is essential, if man is not to be compelled to have recourse, as a last resort, to rebellion against tyranny and oppression that human rights should be protected by the rule of law Whereas it is essential to promote the development of friendly relations between Nations. Whereas the peoples of the United Nations have in the Charter reaffirmed their faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person and in the equal rights of men and women and have determined to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom, Whereas Member States have pledged themselves to achieve, in co-operation with the United Nations, the promotion of universal respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms, Whereas a common understanding of these rights and freedoms is of the greatest importance for the full realization of this pledge, THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY proclaims This UNIVERSAL DECLARATION of HUMAN RIGHTS as a common standard of achievement for all peoples and all nations, to the end that every individual and every organ of society, keeping this Declaration constantly in mind, shall strive by teaching and education to promote respect for these rights and freedoms and by progressive measures, national and international, to secure their universal and effective recognition and observance, both among the peoples of Member States themselves and among the peoples of territories under their jurisdiction.

Article 1.

All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed with reason and conscience and should act towards one another in Human spirit

Article 2.

Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration, without distinction of any kind, such as race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status. No distinction shall be made on the basis of the political, jurisdictional or international status of the country or territory to which a person belongs, whether an independent, trust, non-self-governing or under any other limitation of sovereignty.

Article 3.

Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person.

Article 4.

No one shall be held in slavery or servitude; slavery and the slave trade shall be prohibited in all their forms

Article 5.

No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

Article 6.

Everyone has the right to recognition everywhere as a person before the law.

Article 7.

All are equal before the law and entitled without any discrimination to equal protection of the law. All are entitled to equal protection against any discrimination in violation of this Declaration and against any incitement to such discrimination.

Article 8.

Everyone has the right to an effective remedy by the competent national Tribunals for acts violating the fundamental rights granted him by the constitution or by law.

Article 9.

No one shall be subjected to arbitrary arrest, detention or exile.

Article 10.

Everyone is entitled in full equality to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal, in the determination of his rights and obligations and of any criminal charge against him.

Article 11.

(1) Everyone charged with a penal offence has the right to be presumed innocent until proved guilty according to law in a public trial at which he has had all the guarantees necessary for his defence.

(2) No one shall be held guilty of any penal offence on account of any act or omission which did not constitute a penal offence, under national or international law, at the time when it was committed. Nor shall a heavier penalty be imposed than the one that was applicable at the time the penal offence was committed.

Article 12.

No one shall be subjected to arbitrary interference with his privacy, family, home or correspondence, nor to attacks upon his honour and reputation. Everyone has the right to the protection of the law against such interference or attacks.

Article 13.

- (1) Everyone has the right to freedom of movement
- (2) and residence within the borders of each state.
- (3) Everyone has the right to leave any country, including his own and to return to his country.

Article 14.

- (1) Everyone has the right to seek and to enjoy in other countries asylum from persecution.
- (2) This right may not be invoked in the case of prosecutions genuinely arising from non-political crimes or from acts contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.

Article 15.

- (1) Everyone has the right to a nationality.
- (2) No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his nationality nor denied the right to change his nationality.

Article 16.

Men and women of full age, without any limitation due to race, Nationality or religion, have the right to marry and to found a family. They are entitled to equal rights as to marriage, during marriage and at its dissolution.

Marriage shall be entered into only with the free and full consent of the intending spouses.

The family is the natural and fundamental group unit of society and is entitled to protection by society and the State.

Article 17.

(1) Everyone has the right to own property alone or in association with others.

(2) No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his property.

Article 18.

Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion; this right includes freedom to change his religion or belief, and freedom, either alone or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief in teaching, practice, worship and observance.

Article 19.

Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.

Article 20.

(1) Everyone has the right to freedom of peaceful assembly and association.

(2) No one may be compelled to belong to an association.

Article 21.

(1) Everyone has the right to take part in the government of his country, directly or through freely chosen representatives.

(2) Everyone has the right of equal access to public service in his or her country.

(3) The will of the people shall be the basis of the authority of government; this will shall be expressed in periodic and genuine elections which shall be by universal and equal suffrage and shall be held by secret vote or by equivalent free voting procedures.

Article 22.

Everyone, as a member of society, has the right to social security and is entitled to realization, through national effort and international co-operation and in accordance with the organization and resources of each State, of the economic, social and cultural rights indispensable for his dignity and free development of his personality.

Politics

today is synonymous with power, fear, war, propaganda/spy /psy-ops, murder, conspiracy, global devastation, imperialism, religious-bigotry, intolerance, racism, terrorism, betrayal, kleptocracy, fascism oligarchy, pseudo-democracy, lies, media/control, toxic environment, surveillance, poverty, mistrust, paranoia, oppression, fundamental unconsciousness. Let's change the mindset to natural love, peace happiness and equality. Real Politic for most people in the modern World is determined through NWO. Global Media Conglomerates and can be counted on one hand. The Power they have determines our view and mass-conscious' Reality. It's beyond belief due to the revolution of personal computers, AI. smart I-phone, Internet access, Social media and Virtual Reality platforms etc.

They're obviously Powerful tools of Government, Global Corporations and other Matrix Institutions, ideological, Financial, Religious cabals. In the past, innovations in technology, social, Industrial, Art, scientific, medical, economic and Military capabilities determined our advances. For example, discoveries of the Printing press, radio, TV, fb, Microsoft, Google-DARPE, Atoms, Genetics, Quantum theory, black holes etc. ~ determined civilisation's progress. It is no coincidence that these elitist sociopathic organisations now dominate the landscape of Power politics. The Information owners have joined with the Financial cartels, dictating to the Planet what we should Know, respond to, live, pay, accept, Obey! They work hand in hand with Authorities whether they be Governments of all persuasions, religions, Military Industrial congressional intelligence complexes, NWO deep-state, secret cabals, they are dictating our lives, our natural environment. We only have to look around, listen to people to realise how this is going today. Conspiracies are rampant because of inequalities existing and being promoted only for Capitalist ventures and shareholders' profits! This is a story going back as far as we are led to believe, to the time of Genesis ~ It is one portrayed in religion and also philosophies, as the fight between good, evil, light and dark, weak and powerful, Emperor and slaves. Duality as part of the human condition ~ take your pick! Entwined through this narrative is the one of Man's and woman's free will to be Compassionate or narcissist, sharing or greedy, Conscious, Un/subconscious. (our ego being manipulated subliminally) The chosen ones, destined to determine how the weaker of the species survive, eugenic or not! Politics is about distribution of the slices of the cake, metaphorically. Whether it's the tribal chief who gets to distribute the spoils of the hunt, the king giving land, privileges to those showing allegiance, Popes blessing a pious congregation and those supporting the Inquisition to maintain their Power and holy status against 99% of people who are basically slaves trying to survive. Or is it the hidden - hand of the financial elites sitting on top of all their Gold, as research (Oxfam) shows, as of 2016 eight people control half the wealth of the entire Planet. The list doesn't even include the Rothschild, Rockefeller dynasties; or the Sovereign Funds of Saudi Arabia, Qatar, UAE. etc. which probably control the other half. How did this imbalance arise?

*What are the obvious consequences? Forbes lists the richest 1% and the top bloodline families. Are the Kleptocrats and Plutocrats human? (Human as sharing feelings between other life forms, not sociopathic and predatory). Investigate alternative forums, not the fake news, spin, propaganda, Spy-Psy-Ops troll sites that add to our confusion, ultimate depression, repression, separation. 'Divide and Conquer' is their motto. Another paradigm of Mind-gaming, the Matrix hacking of our brain, is to maintain the illusion of acceptance of the entitled status quo, rather than contemplate change ~ People may be successful or tortured slaves, be sub-human traffick, cannon fodder or collateral damage! The World is witnessing the destruction of living integrity. Earth, its species and eco-bio-logical systems we all depend on are under attack, as never before. ## ABOUT SUNNY JETSUN

*Inspired by the sixties, Sunny started traveling the world in 1970. His spiritual journey on the hippie trail to India took him through ~ San Francisco, Los Angeles, London, Amsterdam, Paris, Vancouver, Sidney and Kathmandu to Varanasi. His arrival on the sub-continent ~ was the beginning of writing autobiographical verses capturing his travel experiences, encounters with remarkable people and his quest for self-realization. Combining experimentation with drugs, sex, rock & roll, art, meditation, Love and life in general. Sunny started to open up to a multi-dimensional Universe. He lived the mantra, "Turn on, tune in, drop out" realising Mind's-illusions, inspired by deeper feelings of holistic nature, empathy * energy & Space.*

Over four decades Sunny has written & published 33+ books of poetry, created over one hundred paintings, traveled the World and considers his masterpiece to be his daughter. He has spent the past sixteen years in Goa, India inspired by the freedom to experience and the idealism of human consciousness.
